

High School Attendance & GPA Summary

This summary highlights current trends in high school student attendance and academic performance, identifies areas of concern, and outlines the support being provided to students across all grade levels.

Key Takeaways

- 20 high school students reviewed (Grades 9–12)
- Attendance is improving overall, but low attendance continues to correlate with low GPA
- Support services are active for students in both attendance and academic counseling

HS Students receiving Attendance Counseling:

6 Seniors

3 Juniors

1 Sophomore

2 Freshmen

HS Students receiving Academic Counseling:

7 Seniors

4 Juniors

3 Sophomores

3 Freshmen

1 HS Student Enrolled in GED Program

4 HS Students Reviewed for GED Program

Middle School Attendance Summary

Key Takeaways

- Overall attendance is strong in Grades 6 and 8, with many students maintaining or improving attendance over 90%.
- 7th Grade presents the most concern, with several students falling below 75%.
- 6th Grade requires no attendance counseling at this time.
- Attendance counseling is currently in place for 6 students

MS Students Receiving Attendance Counseling:

1 Sixth Graders

8 Seventh Graders

3 Eighth Grader

Students Receiving Services for Social, Emotional and/or Behavioral Concerns

(This includes check-ins, individual counseling, & observations)

- 3 Elementary Students
- 3 Middle School Students
- 5 High School Students

Summary of Counseling Services

- Overall, 32 of the 90 students are receiving direct individual services (some students receive overlapping services for multiple concerns). That is approximately 35% of the student population (a 7% increase from quarter 1).
- K-5 are receiving Second Step SEL Classroom Guidance Lessons
- 12th Grade is receiving Leadership Guidance
- 6th-12th Grade are receiving Post-Secondary and Career Guidance/Planning
- 9th-12th Grade Review of Academic Advisory Forms
- 9th-12 Grade are receiving Academic Counseling to Stay on Track for Graduation
- 4 Students accepted to NACTEC Session 1
- 12th Grade is receiving Graduation Guidance/Planning