

PLMS Student Statement Form

Name:

COLT

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

Date:

11/12/25

Grade:

6th

Time:

12:14 pm

1.) I am writing this statement because: I was being disruptive towards Mila

2.) Please specifically explain what happened: Include time of day, place of incident, who was involved? (use other side of page if needed)

Me, Chris, and Mila were sitting at our table group and Chris adjusted his table and Mila got frustrated and said, "Chris stop moving the tables." Chris denied that he moved all the tables at once, and I stuck up for him saying that didn't because he didn't, then I noticed

3.) What could have prevented it from happening?

I could have just said nothing and kept working.

4.) Were there any witnesses or individuals that are involved that should fill out a statement?

Chris

5.) What is the solution to this problem?

I think the solution to this is not say anything and stay out of the problem next time (there won't be a next time).

PLMS Student Statement Form

Name: Christopher [REDACTED]

Date: 1/12/25

Grade: 6th

Time: _____

1.) I am writing this statement because:

I joined Colt when he was saying something Mila didn't like (I think) by saying "Huh".

2.) Please specifically explain what happened: Include time of day, place of incident, who was involved? (use other side of page if needed)

Colt looked under the table and said "Ew. What is that?" Pointing at Mila's shoe which I didn't know at the time. I thought he was talking about Star things on her jeans. Then Colt said "There's a booger thing on your shoe." I looked down and looked at his shoe and didn't see anything. Then Colt whispered to me, "Just go with it" which I didn't and just said "Huh." Very stupidly. Then Mila just left.

3.) What could have prevented it from happening?

Not saying anything.

4.) Were there any witnesses or individuals that are involved that should fill out a statement?

NO

5.) What is the solution to this problem?

Say sorry to Mila for saying that

PLMS Student Statement Form

Name: Mila [REDACTED]
Grade: 6th

Date: 11/12/25
Time: 12:06

1.) I am writing this statement because: Cris and colt were mean

2.) Please specifically explain what happened: Include time of day, place of incident, who was involved? (use other side of page if needed) 4th Period in feeding

We were doing haunted house and colt was adding something to his paper. I said "You should add that to make it better" and I think he got offended? then colt said "I had buggers on my shoe?" (I did not) then cris joined in and they both said I was ugly. And stuff like that.

3.) What could have prevented it from happening?

Not said anything?

4.) Were there any witnesses or individuals that are involved that should fill out a statement?

No we were at a table with us.

5.) What is the solution to this problem?

I don't know Maybe they could say sorry?

Apology Letter for Conflict Resolution

According to Sande's (2002) Peacemakers in Training manual, conflict resolution has several parts. One part includes making the right choices in a conflict and applying the principles of honesty, change, and forgiveness (Sande, 2002). Change is understanding you made a choice that is harmful and you are willing to take responsibility and you want to behave differently (Sande, 2002). Honesty, is openly admitting, to the people you have hurt or offended, you know you were wrong. Forgiveness is making a commitment to not hold a grudge against another person (Sande, 2002). These are illustrated by Sande's 5A's for conflict resolution.

5A's:

1. Admit
2. Apologize
3. Accept (the consequences)
4. Ask (for forgiveness)
5. Alter (your choices)

Using the 5A's write out an admission that you could give to Mila."

1. "I admit I was wrong when I spoke out to you about"
your shoe.
2. "I am sorry for butting in to you and CHRIS'S."
conversation and making it a fight.
3. "I understand why you are frustrated with."
me, for screwing up.
4. "Will you please forgive me?"
5. "Next time I will be nicer and not but."
in so you + you have reason.

Apology Letter for Conflict Resolution

According to Sande's (2002) Peacemakers in Training manual, conflict resolution has several parts. One part includes making the right choices in a conflict and applying the principles of honesty, change, and forgiveness (Sande, 2002). Change is understanding you made a choice that is harmful and you are willing to take responsibility and you want to behave differently (Sande, 2002). Honesty, is openly admitting, to the people you have hurt or offended, you know you were wrong. Forgiveness is making a commitment to not hold a grudge against another person (Sande, 2002). These are illustrated by Sande's 5A's for conflict resolution.

5A's:

1. Admit
2. Apologize
3. Accept (the consequences)
4. Ask (for forgiveness)
5. Alter (your choices)

Using the 5A's write out an admission that you could give to _____."

1. "I admit I was wrong when I _____."

2. "I am sorry for _____"

3. "I understand why _____"

4. "Will you please forgive me?"

5. "Next time I will _____"

Apology Letter for Conflict Resolution

According to Sande's (2002) Peacemakers in Training manual, conflict resolution has several parts. One part includes making the right choices in a conflict and applying the principles of honesty, change, and forgiveness (Sande, 2002). Change is understanding you made a choice that is harmful and you are willing to take responsibility and you want to behave differently (Sande, 2002). Honesty, is openly admitting, to the people you have hurt or offended, you know you were wrong. Forgiveness is making a commitment to not hold a grudge against another person (Sande, 2002). These are illustrated by Sande's 5A's for conflict resolution.

5A's:

1. Admit
2. Apologize
3. Accept (the consequences)
4. Ask (for forgiveness)
5. Alter (your choices)

Using the 5A's write out an admission that you could give to _____."

1. "I admit I was wrong when I _____."

2. "I am sorry for _____."

3. "I understand why _____."

4. "Will you please forgive me?"

5. "Next time I will _____."

